RESTON, Va., May 2, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- ICF (NASDAQ: ICFI), a global consulting and technology services provider, reported results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2024.

Commenting on the results, John Wasson, chair and chief executive officer, said, "This was a record first quarter for ICF. Revenues increased 2% year-on-year, however, adjusting for the divestiture of our commercial marketing business lines during 2023, first quarter revenue increased 9% year-over-year. This strong performance was led by robust growth in revenues from commercial energy clients and supported by solid revenue growth from government clients.

"ICF performed exceptionally well in our Energy, Environment, Infrastructure and Disaster Recovery client market, with revenues up 20% year-over-year, representing 45% of ICF's total first quarter revenues. In this market, we combine our deep domain expertise in energy efficiency, decarbonization, electrification, environmental and climate impacts, and disaster recovery and mitigation to provide comprehensive services and solutions to over 75 utility clients, as well as developers of renewable energy sources, energy companies, and federal, state and local and international government clients.

"The substantial increase in first quarter profitability was attributable to both recurring and quarter-specific factors. Revenue mix together with higher utilization, lower facility costs and our increased scale continued to drive improved margin performance. Additionally, margins benefited from the ramp-up of several recently awarded energy efficiency contracts, which are more profitable during the startup phase.

"This was another strong quarter of contract awards, which increased 21% from the year-ago quarter, maintaining our trailing twelve-month book-to-bill ratio of 1.2. Approximately 70% of our over $2.4 billion in contract awards over the last 12 months represented new business, demonstrating ICF's excellent positioning in growth areas within both our government and commercial client sets. Our business development pipeline remained at $9.7 billion at the end of the quarter, providing further confidence in our ability to sustain our high single-digit organic growth going forward."

First Quarter 2024 Results

First quarter 2024 total revenue was $494.4 million, a 2.3% increase from the $483.3 million reported in the first quarter of 2023, and up 8.7% from last year's first quarter revenues adjusted for the divestiture of our commercial marketing business lines. Operating income was $40.9 million, up 30.2% from $31.5 million, and operating margin on total revenue expanded to 8.3% from 6.5%. Net income totaled $27.3 million, and GAAP EPS was $1.44 per share, inclusive of a net benefit of $0.5 million, or $0.02 per share of tax-effected special charges. This compares to net income and GAAP EPS of $16.4 million, and $0.87, respectively, reported in the first quarter of 2023, which included $4.6 million, or $0.18 per share of tax-effected special charges. In the 2024 first quarter, the company's tax rate was 20.4% compared to 23.5% in the 2023 first quarter.

Summary and Outlook

"ICF's robust first quarter performance supports our full year guidance and sets the stage for another year of substantial growth in 2024. Our energy efficiency and utility consulting, together with ICF's climate and infrastructure services continue to benefit from strong demand from commercial and government clients; our disaster management work is moving forward with new contract wins; and our key areas of focus in the federal government arena, namely public health and IT modernization/digital transformation provide us with significant long-term growth opportunities.

"Based on our strong backlog and current visibility, we are pleased to reaffirm our guidance for 2024. We expect 2024 organic revenues from continuing operations to range from $2.03 billion to $2.10 billion, representing year-on-year growth of 5.2% at the midpoint when compared to reported 2023 and 8.5% growth at the midpoint on continuing operations. EBITDA is expected to range from $220 million to $230 million, reflecting year-on-year growth of 14.2% at the midpoint. Our guidance range for GAAP EPS is $5.25 to $5.55, excluding special charges, and for Non-GAAP EPS is $6.60 to $6.90. Assuming similar margins to the rest of the business, the company's commercial marketing business lines are estimated to have contributed $0.20 of Non-GAAP EPS in 2023, which will not recur in 2024. We expect full year 2024 operating cash flow of approximately $155 million.

"We are proud that our work involves helping clients address many of the most challenging issues of the day. Our ability to attract and retain professionals who are committed to excellent execution and making a positive impact on society has been and remains critical to our success," Mr. Wasson concluded.

<sup>1</sup> Non-GAAP EPS, EBITDA, and Adjusted EBITDA are non-GAAP measurements. A reconciliation of all non-GAAP measurements to the most applicable GAAP number is set forth below. GAAP EPS refers to U.S. GAAP Diluted EPS. Non-GAAP EPS refers to Non-GAAP Diluted EPS. Special charges are items that were included within our consolidated statements of comprehensive income but are not indicative of ongoing performance and have been presented net of applicable U.S. GAAP taxes. The presentation of non-GAAP measurements may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies.
